

ALAN BICK JOINS BICK LAW GROUP

Mon Mar 28th, 2016 | Categories: Firm News | By Bick Law LLP

Bick Law Group is pleased to announce that Alan N. Bick, a pre-eminent environmental lawyer with more than 25 years of experience, has joined the firm as its new co-managing partner.

Mr. Bick joins the firm following his retirement from Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher LLP, where he was a partner in the Orange County office. Mr. Bick practiced environmental law at Gibson Dunn & Crutcher for more than 25 years and co-chaired the Environmental Practice Group.

Mr. Bick has extensive experience in cost recovery actions under CERCLA, RCRA, and the state equivalents; defense of agency enforcement actions; mass and toxic tort defense; natural resource damage actions; and CEQA, NEPA and ESA litigation. He also advises clients on environmental compliance issues and environmental audits, and provides legal advice on due diligence and allocation of risks in real estate and corporate transactions.

"Alan's extensive knowledge and his 25 years of experience in the environmental law practice allow us to provide unparalleled expertise and value to our clients," said Kimberly Bick, founder of the Bick Law Group.

"I am excited to join the talented and hard-working team at Bick Law Group," Mr. Bick said. "I look forward to advancing the firm's goal of providing big firm experience and top-tier legal work in a nimble boutique environment."

Mr. Bick graduated from Stanford Law School. He received his Bachelor of Arts degree in economics and government from Dartmouth College, where he graduated summa cum laude and Phi Beta Kappa. Between college and law school, Mr. Bick worked on Wall Street in investment banking.

Please click on the below links to view Mr. Bick's announcement on various publications.

Law360

Orange County Bar Association