

FOUNDING PARTNER NOMINATED FOR WOMEN IN BUSINESS AWARD

Thu Apr 23rd, 2015 | Categories: Environmental Law |

The founding partner of Bick Law Group, Kimberly L. Bick, has been nominated for the Orange County Business Journal's Women in Business Award. The awards luncheon will take place on Tuesday, June 23, 2015, 12:00-2:00 pm, Hotel Irvine Jamboree Center, 17900 Jamboree Road, Irvine, CA 92614. www.ocbj.com/bizevents.

Kim founded Bick Law Group in 2015 as a firm focused exclusively on environmental law. Kim has more than 20 years of experience in complex environmental litigation, including cost recovery actions under CERCLA, RCRA, and the state equivalents; defense of agency enforcement actions, including CWA, Prop 65, RCRA and state equivalents; mass and toxic tort defense; and CEQA, NEPA and ESA litigation. Kim also has experience in all aspects of environmental regulatory matters including air, water, hazardous waste, green chemistry, e-waste, battery recycling, Rigid Plastic Packaging Containers, and transportation of hazardous substances. In addition to her litigation and regulatory work, Kim provides corporate counseling on environmental compliance issues, due diligence, and allocation of risks in real estate and corporate transactions. Her clients include Lockheed Martin Corporation, Mattel, Inc., and Aurelex Acoustics, Inc., among others.

Screen Shot 2015-04-26 at 5:26:05 PM
Original image type: photo

Click here to see Kim's Women in Business nomination in the May 25 edition of Orange County Business Journal.